

A partial list of speaking endorsements for Tama J. Kieves...

"Tama Kieves knocked the socks off Seattle Unity Church! When a minister leaves his pulpit (congregation) to an unknown presenter and comes home to excellent Sunday love offerings, high CD sales, strong workshop attendance and "please have her here again" comments, it is a success at all levels. Tama's wonderful. Have her at your church, you'll be glad you did."

Rev. Richard Levy, Senior Minister of Seattle Unity Church

"Tama has a real gift of connecting with her audience. She's funny and genuine and our congregation gave her a standing ovation at both morning services and at her workshop as well. We sold out of her books and 125 people raced to her workshop. Tama is a fresh voice that takes the "follow your passion" message to a whole new level. She has a powerful story and tells it with a spiritual authenticity that penetrates to the "real" of what happens when a person walks through their fears to live their truth. If you need an authentic "voice" that can speak straight to the heart of those spiritually seeking – you'll want to be sure and invite Tama."

Rev. Cherie Larkin, Senior Minister of First Church Unity of Nashville

"If you haven't had Tama Kieves speak at your church yet, bring her in now. I'm glad I followed the recommendation of another Unity minister and brought her to UNITY in CHICAGO. She really connected with our congregation, attracted new folks into our church and exposed them to Unity. Tama Kieves is funny, warm and has a great story that touched and ignited the crowd. Her workshop filled and support groups formed after her visit. This woman has a gift and she's a true gift to our community. Get her on your calendar when you can!"

Rev. Erica Trantham, Senior Minister of Unity of Chicago

"Inviting Tama Kieves was one of the better things I have done in the last few years of my ministry... I am proud to say that I would have her back anytime and would be worry free to have her as a guest speaker in my absence in the future. She has my sincerest recommendation to be the perfect speaker for you."

She shared her story with us in a wonderfully entertaining way and then took us through several simple yet powerful exercises to bring up in us what had come up in her. She is a gifted speaker, a talented facilitator and a bright light. She held our audience in the palm of her hand and then let us gather around her table at the end of the evening to get a little more of the great energy she brought to us."
