*Trusting the Journey of Creating the Work
You Love*

By Tama Kieves

*How One Harvard
Lawyer Left It All
To Have It All!*

This book was written for people who currently feel unfulfilled in the area of career and uncertain of the next steps they can take to follow their passion and achieve their dreams.

Our book discussion group will address many issues people face as they strive to live an inspired life. Participants will experience the power and support of shared commitments and intentions to keep their enthusiasm and creativity alive and deepening. This group is for people who are seeking to clarify their purpose, make a career transition, or realize a deeper level of passion and success in the work they are already doing.

Please come and enjoy the chance to share your dreams, unique gifts, ideas, and resources with others who will do the same.

When? Thursdays from 6:30-7:30 p.m. March 30th, April 6th, April 13th

Where? Arc Ancient 1391 Sloane Avenue, Lakewood, Ohio 44107

Facilitated by Mary Ellen Ott, MEd., RCC (440) 933-5892
